

Peterborough Facility Visit

While on the Perkins Engines site, it is important that you are aware of the following guidelines, therefore before arriving please ensure you have read and understood the following information.

- Please arrive ensure your arrival is prompt and you report to Gate 4 security
- No more than the agreed amount of people above will be allowed onto site
- Visitors will not be able to purchase food or drink on site
- Please observe all safety signs in the areas you visit
- Please be aware that this is a working facility and forklift trucks operate in many areas
- Do not leave the green walkways
- Make sure that you wear safety goggles and high visibility vests at all times when in the factory which will be provided for you
- Ensure that flat shoes are worn. Anybody wearing heels, sandals, trainers or open toed shoes will not be able to participate in the tour
- Do not wonder off from the tour group, we cannot be held responsible for your safety if you leave the group during a tour
- Please do not attempt to touch the operating machinery
- There are no facilities on site to store personal belongings, therefore please ensure that personal effects are kept to a minimum upon arrival Large bags /holdalls will not be permitted into the facility
- If you feel unwell at any time during your visit, please inform your guide who will accompany you to our on-site medical centre
- Should the fire alarm sound at any time during the tour (this is a continuous klaxon), please follow your tour guide to the appropriate assembly area
- Smoking is not permitted on site

Photography and filming while on site

- Photography during the tours is strictly forbidden
- Under no circumstances is video footage to be taken while on site, without prior clearance from the Marketing Centre of Excellence department

The company is not responsible for

- Any accident or injury should you fail to follow the instructions given by your tour guide
- Any loss or damage to individuals property should it be brought onto site

We look forward to welcoming you on your scheduled tour date.