

IAgrE Western Branch Visit

Rolls Royce Sir Roy Fedden Centre

Bristol is renowned for cutting edge aircraft technology. It is also the base for Rolls Royce's Sir Roy Fedden Centre which has a fantastic display of aero engines from the 1920s through to wartime Bristol Hercules, Concorde's mighty Olympus and other non-fixed wing aircraft. There is also a workshop team who are restoring engines, providing enthusiasts with the view of precision components and internal workings

Date: Tuesday 8th October 2019
Time: 10.15 am
Venue: Rolls Royce, Bristol, BS34 6QA.
Meet at Gate No.1.
