

IAgrE Western Branch Lecture

Professor Paul Miller: Good Luck, Good Times and Good Agricultural Engineering?

The Western Branch welcomes Professor Paul Miller to give us an insight into his wealth of experience serving the agricultural and food based industries. There are many areas of farming which benefit from his work in soil, fertiliser and agrochemical application, recognised with a scientific accolade from the European Society of Agricultural Engineers in June 2016. An enjoyable evening's presentation with the opportunity to refresh knowledge on good agricultural engineering practices.

Date: Wednesday 6th November 2019
Time: 7.00 pm for 7.30 pm Start
Venue: Royal Agricultural University
