

HARTPURY C O L L E G E

Instructor – Agricultural Engineering (Further Education)
£20,758 per annum pro rata
22.5 hours per week OR Term time only over 5 days per week
Permanent

About the Role

- Support Lecturers in the delivery of Machinery/Workshop practical based units
- Demonstrate best practice to students in accordance with current health, safety procedures.
- Assist with the purchasing of consumables to support the teaching of Engineering subject areas.
- You will co-ordinate and support students on machinery practicals liaising with Lecturers and Farm Staff.

About You

- Demonstrate a range of practical skills
- Degree or relevant industry experience within the agricultural sector
- Strong team player
- Excellent administration skills and demonstrate a willingness to engage with external partners and industry
- Highly motivated individual who enjoys all aspects of agriculture, instilling students with a passion for the subject and a desire to develop their understanding.

What we Offer

- Wellbeing events and Employee Assistance Programme
- Generous Pension Scheme
- Employee Discounts Scheme
- Onsite fitness facilities
- Support for continuous professional development
- Flexible working opportunities available
- 25 days annual leave entitlement plus bank holidays rising to 30 with length of service
- Enhanced maternity and paternity pay

About Us

Hartpury University and Hartpury College are among the UK's leading specialist education providers in agriculture, animal, equine, sport and veterinary nursing. Located in Gloucestershire, Hartpury University and Hartpury College of Further Education sit side-by-side on a beautiful 360-hectare campus. We provide world-class facilities to almost 4,000 university and college-level students studying undergraduate and postgraduate degrees, A-levels and diplomas, as well as undertaking industry research. The University holds Teaching Excellence Framework Gold and has 98% graduate employability, whilst the College is rated Ofsted Outstanding in all areas. A passionate and innovative business culture and exceptional support networks make Hartpury an ideal career choice.

Hartpury is committed to promoting a diverse and inclusive community – a place where we can all be ourselves. We particularly welcome applicants that we are underrepresented in, including those from ethnically diverse backgrounds, LGBTQI+ communities, and those living with disabilities. As part of our commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion we offer a range of inclusive policies, flexible working arrangements and a multi-faith space to support staff from different backgrounds.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We will ensure that all our recruitment and selection practices reflect this commitment. All successful candidates will be subject to Disclosure and Barring Service checks along with other relevant employment checks.

Visit our website www.hartpury.ac.uk to see full details and to apply online or telephone (01452) 702135 to request documents by post.

The closing date for receipt of applications is 23rd October 2022

